Knights in Action

Winter 2024

Help a Parishioner Move - Dec 30th

Several Knights helped a parishioner move from a temporary living arrangement into her own apartment. Thanks to those who lent a hand to make a difficult move a kind act of service.

Free Throw Championship - Jan 6th

Thirteen contestants participated in the Council's Free Throw Championship, organized by Jonathan Lash. Six Knights and six other volunteers assisted in this successful event.

Fraternal Benefits Night - Jan 18th

Twelve attendees learned about the KofC financial benefits through programs available to Knights and their families. Field Agent Cory Cook explained elements of the various tools to protect and enhance the financial security. If you would like to learn more, contact Cory (703-665-1388, cory.cook@kofc.org).

Requiem Mass and Lunch - Jan 20th

A mass for deceased Knights, Wives and Widowers was held to remember the dearly departed. After Mass, the attendees gathered in Fr. Ruehl Hall for lunch. A total of about 35 Widows and Widowers from the Parish with their families were able to attend. Thanks to Brother Michael Turner for organizing the event as well as the assistance of head cook WGK John Stieb.

Exemplification Ceremony - Jan 27th

Council #7771 conducted a Degree Exemplification for several knights who joined on-line and are members of the Virginia State Council. By obtaining their Third Degree, they are now eligible to join a local council. Many thanks to WGK John Stieb, Chaplain Fr. Duesterhaus and the presenters on Charity, Unity and Fraternity.

Super Bowl Submarine Sandwich Sale - Feb 11th

Brother Patrick Patton led the Council's sandwich aficionados in the assembly of the Super Bowl Submarine Sandwiches. A total of 215 full-size and 70 half-size sandwiches were purchased by the parishioners of St. John the Baptist. This, and similar projects, help fund out Council's charitable donations, community / fraternal activities and administrative expenses.
